Nnnnnnn Numb. 4081.

The Daily Courant.

Monday, November 22. 1714.

From the Hag. Cour. Nov. 26. and Amst. Gaz. Nov. 27.

Lisbon, October 23.

ON the 21st and 22d Instant, the three Brazil Fleets, namely, from the Bahia dos Todos Santos, Rio de Janeiro, and Pernambuca, together with one Ship from Goa and another from Macao, in all 44 Sail, arrived safe in our Road; the second Ship from Goa lies at Anchor with the Men of War under the Cascays: Which are all that set out, except one Ship that in sailing out of the Bahia was cast away. The Lading of the Brazil Ships is not so great as might be expected, because Sugar is very dear and scarce there. However, they bring 11000 Chests of that Comodity, and as many Rolls of Tobacco; with 150000 Cruzadoes, besides Gold in Dust and Bars a great Quantity. They came all in Company from the Azores Islands under the Convoy of two Men of War, who waited there for them. The Passengers that are come ashore say, that the Goa Ships are very rich; but that at Brazil there is a glut of European Goods.

From the Hague Courant, dated Nov. 28.

Lisbon, Nov. 3. We are not yet assured of the Quantity of Sugar and Tobacco that is on board the Brazil Fleet: Some make the Sugar amount to 16000 Chests, and the Tobacco to 18000 Rolls, while others say the Number is much smaller, even although the Ships for Port o Port and Vianna are reckoned in. Those for the former Port will, by reason of the lateness of the Season, be obliged to unlade their Goods here. The two Ships from Goa, which are the Princess of Heaven and the St. Francis Xavier, are extream rich; and bring Advice, that the three Ships which sailed hence last Year were not yet arrived at Goa. The two Fleets from the Bahia and Rio Janeiro were just two Months, and that from Pernambuca five Months upon their Voyage. The Gold on board them, exceeds in Quantity what has in former Years been brought. Some Men of War will be sent in January to the Bahia and Rio de Janeiro, to fetch the other Ships that are still there, and the Quinto or King's fifth Part.

From the Amst. Cour. and Leid. Gaz. dated Nov. 27.

Trier, Nov. 19. The French have this Day begun to demolish Fort St. Martin, but they work very slow upon it. They offer the Magistrates the Choice of doing it themselves, or waiting till the French Soldiers can do it, who complain for want of Pay. They have also demanded if they would demolish Saarbourg, or if they would have a Battallion of French Soldiers march thither to do it: But there can be no Answer given to these Propositions till we hear from his Electoral Highness.
